Teen Read Week

October 8-14

The mission of Teen Read Week is to encourage teens to be active readers and library users. This year's theme is "Unleash Your Story." From October 1-16, teens in grades 6-12 can submit a review of a book recently read and win a prize! Review forms can be picked up and dropped off at any of the library branches. The last day to drop off your completed form is October 16. In addition, students in grades 6-12 can join us on Tuesday, October 3 from 6:00-7:30 pm for Blogging 101. Amish Bhavsar, Founder of Accel Learning will lead an interactive session and discuss publishing your very own blog, monetizing it, marketing it and making it fun for your readers! On Wednesday, October 11 from 6:30-8:30 pm, Hillary DePiano, published playwright and author, will be here to give a crash course in novel prep. Get inspired and participate in a prize drawing! You won't want to miss out!
